Dear Ted,

I am extremely impressed with the excellent North American Leadership Institute (NALI) you have designed and delivered. The academic content that I experienced on my trip to Mexico in July was top flight, the cultural exposure that you provided was deep and meaningful, the students you gathered into your program were remarkable, and the opportunities for spiritual insight and reflection were genuine and impressive. I had no idea that you could have planned such a full, rich schedule of activities, meetings, and experiences for us.

I have evaluated the NALI syllabus and schedule of cultural activities outside the classroom and have determined that the three-week program is worthy of 84 hours of instruction and 6 undergraduate credits. I look forward to pursuing collaborative programs between DeSales University and the North American Leadership Institute.

Congratulations on your success to date.

Sincerely,

Karen Doyle Walton
